Judging: Part 1

Speak not evil one of another, brethren. He that speaketh evil of his brother, and judgeth his brother, speaketh evil of the law, and judgeth the law: but if thou judge the law, thou art not a doer of the law, but a judge. There is one lawgiver, who is able to save and to destroy: who art thou that judgest another? (James 4:11-12).

This part of James sounds very much like a portion of Jesus' Sermon on the Mount. Who art that judgest another? inquired James. Judge not, that ye be judged, said the Lord.

Judging is one of the most common sins among us, but one that doesn't receive the attention and rebuke most other sins receive. We must never overlook nor minimize any sin warned against in the Bible.

One can be lost for judging as well as for other transgressions. This is one of those attitudes that will warp our soul and do much harm to the cause. It must be dealt with both in the pulpit and in other media of teaching. Let us ask and answer four questions.

What is judging?

It is not a mere statement of fact; contrariwise, it is

1. jumping to a conclusion;
2. forming a harsh or hasty opinion;
3. censorship;
4. arriving at a decision without weighing the evidence.

Judging deals with one's motives and intentions, and things that do not appear on the surface. It is not judging to say that a man is intoxicated when the evidence cannot be refuted, but it is judging to go backstage in the man's life and say that he does not intend to be better, or that he is not trying, or to put some other questionable construction upon the man's thinking.

One is often heard to say, I'll bet John Doe would act such and such a way if he were thrown into certain circumstances. This is judging; it is jumping to a conclusion; it is forming a harsh or hasty opinion. Such a practice is prohibited in the Scriptures.

What causes judgment?

Often it is the out-cropping of an inferiority complex. It is a cover-up. To condemn others inflates the critic's ego. Some study to be hyper-critical. One should remember that when he points his finger of scorn at someone else, three of his fingers point back to him. Then, there are those who judge because of jealousy or envy. Envy seeks to get rid of the object of its envy. This is frequently accomplished by hurting the influence of the one envied. Instead of pulling himself up to another's level, he reaches up and pulls the other one down to his own level. And some judge through lack of forethought. - George Bailey

- vision without action is a daydream, .....
- Action without vision is a nightmare.

Judging: Part 2

What will judging do? It puts us in God's place as a judge. God's law is to train us for better judges. We need more judgment and fewer judges. A man's judgment is no better than his information. We usually lack the necessary facts for adequate judgment.

Judging also sets us up as examples and creates within us a holier-than-thou feeling. You cannot go on judging others without elevating yourself above them. As an example of this, study the Pharisee in Luke 18:9-14.

Through judging we are forced into the pool of hypocrisy. We begin to judge in others the things that are our own greatest weaknesses. Why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother's eye, but considerest not the beam that is in thine own eye? (Matthew 7:3). For wherein thou judgest another, thou condemnest thyself; for thou that judgest doest the same things (Romans 2:1). He that walks barefoot must never plant thorns. The Indians would say: Never criticize another's walk until you have walked in his moccasins for three days. Before condemning another for his faults, sit down and count ten of your own. In looking for someone to criticize, don't turn your head when passing the mirror.

What is the cure for judging?

It might be compared to the balance type scales. On one side is the standard weight; on the other side, the product to be weighed. The scales will speak for themselves in the weighing of the matter. The only cure for judging is true love. - George Bailey

“God Exists”

- A. Many deny the existence of God and reject the fact that He is the creator.
- B. Our children are taught the evolutionary theory in school which denies that God is the designer and that we happened by chance.
- C. Only a fool would say in his heart that there is no God.
  - a. Something had to be the cause of the Universe being here.
    1. As we look at the Universe, we know that something can not come from _____.
    2. The Law of Cause and Effect says that every material effect must have an adequate cause that existed before the effect.
    3. In order for matter to exist there had to be a _____ for it to exist.
    4. When there is an explosion, things are destroyed not made.
    5. The Bible tells us the cause of the Universe. Genesis 1:1, Exodus 20:11, Acts 17:24.
    6. Psalms 90:2 declares that God existed before matter or energy.
  - b. Design demands a designer. Romans 1:20
    1. Every story has a writer, every house has a builder, every sculpture has a sculptor.
    2. Everywhere we look we see _____, so therefore there has to be a _____.
    3. The Earth proves that there is a _____.
    4. The human eye and heart proves that there is a designer.
    5. We are wonderfully made. Psalm 139:14
    6. The _____ proves that there is a designer.
    7. The fact that the Earth is at the perfect distance, the complexity of the human body and the design of the electric cell show that there had to be a designer.
